				THANKSGIVING DAY

We've got customers pouring in and out the door and we're thankful for you all and so much more. We enjoy watching the new and old faces come and go, but we are keeping our eyes out for Santa, high and low.

Angie and Hanna are serving up pancakes, pies, eggs, coffee and toast. Shhh, you might catch Stu stealing a bite of some hot beef roast. Adam and Dean are out on their break, blasting the music we all just can't take.

Sadie, Pip and Elisabeth are slinging out some food dishes. If you listen really close, you may hear us all sending in our Christmas wishes.

Lucas seems to always be making chicken fried steaks, while Payton, Ethan and Jaykob are awaiting their school's winter breaks! Amy is waiting tables with a huge smile on her face, happy to be here while everyone finishes their shopping like it's a race.

Here's to all the local businesses and people in town, and to those who drive all this way, just for a slice of pie or a quick "hey." And to 28 Christmases you've helped keep our doors open, thank you, thank you, thank you, even when it's left unspoken.

Merry Christmas
