about US

ALL ABOUT YOUR COMMUNITY

Each Iowa Living magazine is a free, lifestyle publication that is distributed monthly in each community, group of communities or neighborhood. Choose from 14 customized publications in central Iowa.

Local content drives readership and, ultimately, advertising results. Our magazines cut through the clutter because they are unique and relevant in a hyper-local way.

Our cover stories focus on local subjects and how they specifically relate to residents. We feature individuals and families and publish their perspectives in ways that are informative for all. The cover photos typically feature residents, and the inside pages are heavy with photos for an easy read.

In addition, a number of regular editorial features are included in the magazine including education, faith, finance, community photos, things to do, real estate, health, fitness, recipes and more.
